

Program Guidelines

Introduction:

This program's purpose is to better prepare young people, in Department of Children, Youth, and Families' (DCYF) juvenile institutions and community facilities, for a pathway to employment through Juvenile Rehabilitation (JR), which is a Division under the DCYF. This program provides Pre-employment Transition services, called My Journey Out Beyond (MyJOB) in the categories of job exploration counseling, counseling opportunities for enrollment in comprehensive transition or post-secondary programs, self-advocacy, workplace readiness training, and work-based learning experiences and in alignment with the Education and Employment Training (EET) Program.

The JR My JOB program is designed to better prepare JR youth, for a pathway to employment in JR juvenile institutions and community facilities. This program offers a workforce development framework that integrates various K-14 educational services and vocational rehabilitation strategies with current and emerging practices in juvenile justice treatment and rehabilitation. It recognizes the importance of a continuum of care for successful reentry into productive society. This program is divided into two phases with Phase 1 in JR facilities and Phase 2 in the community (including community facilities).

Program Goals:

- (1) Interlock agency systems to create, implement, and maintain an unprecedented continuum of care for the student participant inside and outside the JR facilities.
- (2) Prioritize and develop career plans, pathways, employment placement, and appropriate connections to the labor market.
- (3) Provide work-based learning opportunities, on and off-site.
- (4) Introduce small business and entrepreneurship as a viable employment opportunity.
- (5) Maximize resources, leverage current vocational programming, and onsite activities.
- (6) Coordinate follow-up via established systems such as Worksource WA.

MyJOB Program Goals:

- (1) All students attend Job Exploration, Work Readiness Training, Self-Advocacy Training, and Work Based Learning Experiences while participating in the MyJOB program;
- (2) All students who complete work readiness training are equipped with a portfolio that includes all earned certificates, resumes, cover letters, and sample applications;
- (3) Students will be linked to education or employment through connections with JR Employment Coordinators (ECs), who link to employers, WIOA, Education Advocates, and DVR upon reentry to the community.
- (4) Student employment data will be measured and reported annually by DCYF Office of Innovation, Accountability, and Alignment (OIAA) using Employment Security Department (ESD) data.

Objective and Scope:

Subcontractors will provide direct delivery of the following Pre-Employment Transition Services in JR community facilities through delivery of JR's program My Journey Out Beyond (MyJOB):

I. Job Exploration Counseling – informed decision-making regarding career options;

(1) Conducting vocational assessments, discussion of results of interest inventory, discussing labor market information, in-demand industries, and occupations, identifying career pathways of interest to the students and begin career portfolio.

(2) For students 14-25.

- Each Student shall receive a minimum of twenty (20) hours of Job Exploration Counseling within a twelve (12) month period not to exceed 120 hours starting with the date a Student begins their initial training (including services provided by other contractors).
